

Hi I'm Sherry

About Me

I'm a book sculpture artist who transforms discarded books into intricate art. Through cutting, folding, and twisting, I give new life to forgotten pages, creating sculptures that celebrate literature and challenge how we see books. I am based in Vineland, NJ and have lived here for more than 20 years.

My Experience

- I have been creating book sculptures for over 5 years
- I offer custom book sculptures, where I bring clients' visions to life
- You can reach out and follow my journey on my instagram: @crafty_sherry
